George O. Walker to Launch Tax and Venture Capital Law Practice at The Profit Law Firm.

October 5, 2017 - Bethesda—The Profit Law Firm has announced that George O. Walker, joined the firm as Senior Counsel in September 2017. “I am excited to welcome George aboard,” said business, trusts and elder law expert Michelle Profit, the firm’s Managing Partner. “George’s well-rounded understanding of U.S. and international tax and business law, coupled with his prior experience in financial services and dispute resolution, makes him an asset on a range of transactional matters.”

Mr. Walker takes a particular interest in counseling transitional start-ups and medium-sized businesses with an eye toward attracting new capital, negotiating contracts, and transacting business across borders. George trained at Georgetown University (JD & LL.M. in Taxation) where he concentrated on the structuring of corporations and tax conduit entities. He also holds a law degree from Switzerland, and has prior government experience on the Hill and as a tax law fellow at the US Court of Federal Claims.

“I am proud to join the Profit Law firm, which affords me both the structure and the freedom needed to serve as the primary outside counsel to business owners and nonprofits. Thanks to Ms. Profit’s philosophy of high quality service and her complementary expertise in complex trusts and estates, we are finding tangible synergies. There was instant chemistry,” said George.
