The Greater Bethesda Chamber dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution but may be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. A portion of dues, however, is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense to the extent that the Greater Bethesda Chamber engages in local, state or federal lobbying. The deductible portion of dues is 95%. Memberships are not transferable. *Number of representatives that are to be listed in the directory. Annual dues and application fee are due upon join date. Dues are based on number of local full-time employees. All employees are members once your company joins. Renewal invoices are sent on membership anniversary date. June 2018
